

OF FIRST IMPORTANCE.

"Sleep," said Seneca Paine, "covers a man all over, though he is all like a clock." So do our Clocks the women. When they touch the men only they sleep, and that is the price.

COST AND LESS.

These are shop-worn phrases, we know, but they exactly describe the truth of the situation with us now, and so we use them. We want to sell every Clock of the styles named following, so that our inventory will find our clock department like Mother Hubbard's closet, so to speak, and that is the price.

NEWMARKETS, SHORT WRAPS,

LADIES' JACKETS AND MISSES' CLOAKS. All and singular, will be sold at cost, except the many among them which will go for less than cost.

A rare opportunity!

TIME!

A loyal son of "Fatherland" said that all the French clocks in the world couldn't equal the "Watch on the Rhine." We have some very fine French clocks, all the same, and while we don't claim to have the watch on the Rhine, we have watches that are "on time" with as near an exactness as human mechanism can approach the perfection of the sun. We have watches of every kind, grade and style.

CITY NEWS.

The State Health Board has been notified of two cases of smallpox near Fortville. The annual new-letting will be held this evening at the Second Presbyterian Church. Henry Habesay has been elected vice president of the German Orphan Asylum, vice Henry Munkeliet, deceased. The Hibernians will celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a street parade and speeches, and all Irish societies of the city and State will be invited to co-operate. The river is high and was slowly rising yesterday afternoon. It was beginning to get out over the lowest bottoms, but was hardly up to flood height. Anna M. LaForté is suing a divorce from Victor LaForté, alleging abandonment five years ago. They were married in Greene County, New York, in 1863.

Ted Lindwick, residing at 100 Hadley avenue, and in the employ of the I. B. & W. was overcome by the heat, Saturday afternoon, while cleaning a boiler, and had to be carried to his home.

There will be a meeting of the Youth's Home and Employment Association on tomorrow evening, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, and the report of the association will be a general attendance of the membership.

John Guyman's store, 179 Indiana avenue, was visited by burglars Saturday night, and goods valued in excess of $25 were carried away. A few pairs of shoes were also stolen from Trimp's shoe store, close at hand.

Patrolmen are often called upon with strange requests, but Hagerman has drawn the line on a lady who called him several times to her regular walk only for him to find that he was expected to do something toward quieting a crying infant.

Several cases of diphtheria developed last week, and the Health Board Saturday evening reported six fatalities from the disease. Twenty cases of scarlatina were also reported for the week, and there were thirty-seven deaths from all diseases, with thirty-six births.

Five persons were immersed last night at the new Third Christian Church in the presence of an audience that more than filled the house. The pastor, for the first time since his illness, was able to fill the pulpit. There will be services to-night and probably all week.

The Township Trustees complain of the lameness of the present land tax law for keeping up the township roads, more particularly the provision permitting farmers to work out the same, and he thinks it should be amended so as to make the payment of the tax compulsory.

Indiana's War Claims. Congressman Browne, of the Sixth District, last week introduced two very important bills in Congress which, if passed, will cause to be paid to the State of Indiana, from the general Government, a very large amount of money. The bills were prepared by Attorney General Michener, and an elaborate argument in support of them is being printed for distribution among the members. It is proposed by legislation to pay the Indiana claim which have been long pending, and Mr. Michener says their effect will be, if enacted, to put about $5,000,000 in the State Treasury. The claims of the State against the general Government vary in extent and character. In 1861 the State loaned $2,000,000 in war loan bonds, and on account of bad credit was obliged to sell them at a discount, and redeem them at par, and it is claimed that the Government should pay the difference, the amount of which is $636,979.41. Interest on this amount is also asked. Another claim is based upon the action of the Government in allowing the State 15 per cent. rebate, and its share of the tax, provided it ordered it, which Governor Morton had done in Indiana. The other bill introduced by Mr. Browne provides for refunding to the various States and Territories the amounts of the war tax paid by them, amounting in all to over $40,000,000, of which Indiana would probably be entitled to about $1,800,000.

The Democratic Rally. The Democrats are expecting a very large attendance at their rally here on Wednesday. There will be a conference at Masonic Hall beginning at 10 o'clock and continuing throughout the day, and in the evening there will be a mass meeting at Masonic Hall, at which John W. Kern will preside, and addresses will be delivered by Henry Watterson, Senator Voorhees, Governor Gray, W. H. English, C. L. Jewett, A. G. Smith, C. G. Offutt and others. A long list of vice presidents, including prominent Democrats from every county in the State, has been prepared. The Hendricks Club has all the arrangements in charge. There will be a big street parade preliminary to the evening meeting. A special train will be run here from Greensburg and Shelbyville, bringing six hundred or seven hundred of the untried, and they will make a parade on their own account. Altogether a very large time is expected. The young Democrats have worked hard to make the demonstration a success.

Emerald Association Election. The Emerald Beneficial Association held its regular election of officers yesterday afternoon. The occasion of the installation, which is set for the 22d inst., is to be made interesting by an address by J. A. Golden, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The new officers include: President, Benton C. Bailey; Vice President, John Creder; Secretary, James McCracken; Treasurer, James B. Cantlon; Marshal, R. J. O'Connor; Assistant Marshal, Richard Butler; Steward, James Markey; Librarian, E. H. Vale; Assistant Librarian, F. P. Dwyer; Messenger, William Carriker; Board of Trustees, Robert Emmett, William Sheridan and James Markey.

A Discovery by the Journal. The Journal says that Trustee Burrell, of the Indiana Asylum, has assumed the prerogatives heretofore exercised by Harrison and Gopen in the matter of appointments, while Harrison and Gopen continue to control the contracts for supplies, and it implies that there has been a specific arrangement between Burrell on the one hand, and Harrison and Gopen on the other, to this effect. And it intimates that under this arrangement Burrell has made Mrs. Price, a sister-in-law of the superintendent, forewoman of the sewing department, vice Miss Nora Toomey, who has held the position for several years.

A Zealous Member Recognized. Excelsior Lodge, K. of P., which has been having a remarkable run of prosperity the past term, much of which was due to the proclivity of "Stan" Turner, of the Fire Department, has presented that gentleman with a gold watch, the presentation speech being made by Past Chancellor Smith. The lodge now has thirty-eight applicants and candidates for the three ranks, and the first rank in amplified form will be conferred upon a large number next Friday night.

Trade of the Past Year. The most cursory review of the volume of trade done at the various manufacturing concerns of Indianapolis during 1887 shows a healthful increase in nearly every instance over any previous year's report. In many individual cases the growth of business has been wonderful, and few business men of the city can explain of 1887 as a year in which their plans did not prosper. A great number of manufacturing plants have either been enlarged, or removed to more commodious quarters, and everything betokens a season of the greatest prosperity throughout the year now opening.

Reform School Club. On to-morrow evening the Reform School Club, under the direction of Professor Charlton, will give an entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. L. D. Drake, one of the officers of the institution, will take part in the exercises, which will be largely borne by the inmates. There are some wonderfully good voices among the boys, and the entertainment will be a treat and a surprise to those who may attend.

The Second Presbyterian Church will hold its annual new-letting and social this evening.

THE BIG END OF THE GLASS.

When you look through the big end of the opera-glass, things diminish this way:

That's the way our prices look now to the bare eye. We want you to look at them with your bare eye. Why? Because we can't tell you about them. Why? This SQUARE CUT OF 20 PER CENT. ON HEAVY OPERA GLASSES.

SAME ON GENUINE ALASKA SEAL CAPS. SAME ON FINE UNDERWEAR. SAME AND MORE ON DRESSING GOWNS. "That's the telling," you say. No, it isn't. The story is hardly begun. We haven't room to tell it. We can mention that much, but it is only part of the GENERAL REDUCTION.

Of what do you suppose a great five-department store like THE WHEN is composed? Well, the general reduction sweeps through, touching the thousand and one things in our vast stock that never get talked about—trifles too small to take up our daily newspaper space withal.

He is the fellow that secures the advantage on all these things, because he "gets there." If you would secure it, come. It's the trade that comes that gets the bargain. If you are in need of any of the many things that we sell, come and learn our reduced prices.

THE WHEN.
